Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP)

The Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) Is A U.S. Government Program That Helps Many Low Income Households Pay For Broadband Service.

You are likely eligible if your household's income is below 200% of the Federal Poverty Line or you (or someone in your household) participate in one of these programs:

> Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

> Medicaid

> Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

> Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

> Federal Public Housing Assistance (FPHA)
  Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch Program or School Breakfast

> Program, including at U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Community Eligibility Provision schools

> Received a Federal Pell Grant in the current award year

You can check eligibility requirements and apply for the ACP by visiting ACPBenefit.org. If you have questions about the ACP or wish to check your application status you can contact the ACP Support Center at (877) 384-2575.

Complaints concerning ACP service can be directed to the FCC Consumer Complaint center at https://consumercomplaints.fcc.gov/ or 1-888-225-5322.

AFFORDABLE CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM

WHAT IS IT?

The Affordable Connectivity Program is an FCC program that helps connect families and households struggling to afford internet service.

The benefit provides:
- Up to $30/month discount for internet service;
- Up to $75/month discount for households on qualifying Tribal lands; and
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through a participating provider.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

A household is eligible if one member of the household meets at least one of the criteria below:

- Has an income that is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guide lines;
- Participates in certain assistance programs, such as SNAP, Medicaid, Federal Public Housing Assistance, SSI, WIC, or Lifeline;
- Participates in Tribal specific programs, such as Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance, Tribal TANF, or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations;
- Is approved to receive benefits under the free and reduced-price school lunch program or the school breakfast program, including through the USDA Community Eligibility Provision;
- Received a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year; or
- Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating broadband provider's existing low-income program.

TWO STEPS TO ENROLL

1

Go to ACPBenefit.org to submit an application or print out a mail-in application.

2

Contact your preferred participating provider to select an eligible plan and have the discount applied to your bill.

Some providers may have an alternative application that they will ask you to complete.

Eligible households must both apply for the program and contact a participating provider to select a service plan.
